

Call for Papers : Mercury cycles and its management

Dear all related colleagues of Journal of Material Cycles and Waste Management (JMCWM)

The Journal of Material Cycles and Waste Management (IF 3.579 of 2021), which is the peer-reviewed journal of the Japan Society of Material Cycles and Waste Management (JSMCWM) and the Korea Society of Waste Management (KSWM), is currently running a Special Issue entitled "Mercury cycles and its management ". Prof. Masaki Takaoka (Kyoto University), Dr. Kenichi Nakajima(National Institute for Environmental Studies), Dr. Akinori Takeuchi(National Institute for Environmental Studies), Prof. Misuzu Asari (Kyoto University) and Prof. Reiko Sodeno (Shibaura Institute of Technology) are serving as responsible editors for this issue. We expect you could make an excellent contribution based on your expertise and recent achievements in following areas;

- [1] Mercury cycles in the environment
- [2] Advanced analysis technologies of mercury
- [3] Innovative mercury reduction practices and technologies in products or manufacturing processes
- [4] Mercury flow analysis
- [5] Good collection and recovery of mercury waste
- [6] Advanced mercury emission and/or release control technologies
- [7] Long term safe management of mercury waste
- [8] New policy and legal framework of mercury management

We are interested in sociological studies, filed studies, laboratory studies and practical implementation, in the form of Original articles, Notes, and Regional case studies. All manuscripts for the JMCWM special issue of "Mercury cycles and its management " will be subject to follow standard rules and review process for peer reviewed papers; including the review of each manuscript by at least two international experts. The deadline for paper submission is extended to December 15, 2022. The accepted papers will be published in early July 2023 (Volume 25).
